PRODUCT UPDATE

AAI® BALANCE BEAMS

Now the new Air Channel Pad comes standard on all AAI® Competition and Practice Beams. This new pre-engineered pad provides a consistent crisp edge along the entire top surface. This is the preferred surface for both new and newly recovered beams.

This updated brown sanded material is exclusive to AAI improving the look and feel of AAI® beams.

EVEN AFTER 60 YEARS, AAI IS FINDING NEW WAYS TO IMPROVE OUR BEAMS:

- UPDATED COVER: More supple material means less cracking on the corners and a better feel.
- NEW PAD: Air Channel Rubber pad provides better cushioning to absorb the impact for gymnasts from beginner through elite.
- NEW CERTIFIED RECOVERY: Our certified recovery specialists can restore your beam to "like-new" condition using only authentic AAI® parts and materials and provide you with an 18 Month Warranty!
- When getting your AAI beam recovered, specify ONLY Certified AAI® parts. No substitutes!
